The Berries Jose Mendes is converged upon by three Eastern Suburbs players last weekend.

ON THE ROAD To The Title

CENTRAL COAST vs BONNYRIGG

Bonnyrigg will face a more confident Coasties outfit after they secured their first points of the season against Ryde last weekend. The 2-0 win was a well deserved win and with new keeper Gary Meier sure to inspire confidence in the defence, the Coasties suddenly look a more daunting task. Meier, although over 40, was at his brilliant best making a number of superb saves. Peter Preston's form is outstanding at the moment and if he can dominate the midfield they will be competitive. Bonnyrigg went to the top of the table with their win over Macarthur but I doubt John Turner would have been pleased with his performance. Bonnyrigg were outplayed for long periods of the game and but for some great goalkeeping by Mladen Kos, probably should have lost. However it is rare these days for Bonnyrigg to play two bad games in a row and with the calibre of players in the team are sure to bounce back. The Coasties also have the wood over Bonnyrigg and just may spring a surprise in this one.

MACARTHUR RAMS vs PARRAMATTA EAGLES

Rams coach Casey De Bruin was philosophical after last weekends defeat by Bonnyrigg but not displeased. To say Macarthur were unlucky is an understatement but in football it is who takes their chances and Bonnyrigg took theirs and Macarthur didn't. De Bruin however saw the positives and knows his side is going to be a force this year. Are only a point off the pace and are sure to lift for this game. Last years champions though suffered their second straight loss and have started their defence of their titles rather shakily. It has been quite a long time since the Eagles have two in a row yet alone two at home and must win in this game to keep pace with the leaders. Unlike last year there is not an air of invincibility about them and while they are still a good side they are beatable. On form Macarthur will win but form in not a good thing to follow in this competition.

LEICHHARDT vs EASTERN SUBURBS

Leichhardt is doing very well to be sitting top of the table when you consider they have played away for the first three games. Are looking a very dangerous side and with this match being their first at home a good turn out is expected at Lambert Park. A strong second half performance earned the Tigers the points with Buonavoglia again the most dangerous player. However Leichhardt looks like a well compacted unit that is always going to be hard to beat. Easts on the other hand were a little fortunate to get a point from their game with Canterbury. Some bad finishing by the Berries let them off the hook. They will also go into this game without Phil Moss (suspension) and most likely Matthew Dihm (illness), leaving them short at the back of experience. They will also face a Tigers side keen to exact revenge for a humiliating defeat in the pre-season cup. Easts will not get it their way this time and with the likes of Buonavoglia on fire it is hard to see Leichhardt being beaten.

CANTERBURY vs SUTHERLAND

The Berries continue to keep the points coming and are unbeaten after three rounds. Coach John Xipolitas is certain his team is a definite challenger for the finals this year and believes his side has a winning attitude which they didn't have last year. Should have beaten Easts last weekend but let them off the hook. Jim Nikas who was the guilty party in that regard was however a constant menace for the Easts defence and seems to thriving in a more attacking role. Defence is very solid and hard to penetrate. Sutherland had to rely on a last minute goal to earn a point against an 8-man Bankstown side. But in saying that, were more than competitive. Bankstown had the better opportunities but found Sharks keeper Paul Henderson in inspired form. Slowly John Lavin's young side is adapting to the pace of the Super League and after a fairly reasonable start are gaining more confidence. However at home on Henson Park, the Berries are hard to beat and should get home.

BANKSTOWN vs RYDE

This match could the perfect opportunity for Ryde to get their first points of the season. They have several reasons for doing so. Firstly, Bankstown thumped them in the pre-season cup and they should be out to exact some revenge and secondly, Bankstown's squad has been hit by last weekend's three send-offs. Bankstown despite the three send-offs held on for a draw and were unlucky not to get a win over Sutherland. Ryde went down 2-0 to the Coasties but had their moments to certainly make a game of it. Were a little lacklustre at times and need to concentrate and be prepared to fight it right out till the end in this league. It is uncertain who will come in for Celik, Stajcic and Velevski but all three play important roles for the Lions and will be hard to replace.

BLACKTOWN vs ST. GEORGE

The Demons will be well pleased to get past Parramatta last weekend after an indifferent start to the season. Slowly but surely the Demons are coming together as a side that has a real chance of honours this year. Jon Angelucci has started well with two goals in his first three games and Steve Berry as always is proving a handy goalscorer from his midfield position. St. George once again wilted in the second half to lose for the third game in a row. This will not have pleased coach Frank Lang and he will be installing into his players this week that they must go for 90 minutes. In each game they have led at the break but surrendered their leads. If they drop off again in this match, Blacktown will not show any sympathy as they have come home strong in two of their games so far. This will also be the Saints first game away from home, which does not augur well when trying to pick up your first points for the season. Blacktown to win.

Easts Vadim Mikoutski gets away from Canterbury's Matthew Percy

KOS SAVES BONNYRIGG

A brilliant goalkeeping display by Bonnyrigg White Eagles Mladen Kos earned his side three points against an unlucky Macarthur Rams at the Serbian Centre.

A lone goal to Mark Hoenselaars after just five minutes was enough to see the White Eagles home but only after surviving a Macarthur domination in the second half.

Kos, needed to be and was at his best as he continually thwarted the Rams attack that in fairness deserved at least a draw from the match. He saved his best for the final ten minutes when he beat a 25 metre drive from Martin Bourke and then remarkably jumped up to deny Trevor Whiddett who pounced quickly on the rebound.

But it was in the first five minutes, that in the end mattered most. Young Bonnyrigg defender Borislav Dragas hit the bar in the 2nd minute and then three minutes later they took the lead. Scott Xuereb did well to get behind the defence and crossed perfectly to Hoenselaars who crashed a brilliant volley past Rams keeper John Crawley.

However from then on it was Macarthur who controlled the play and Kos was soon in the action, tipping a free kick from David Reid over the bar.

Not long after he called to stop a good shot by Eric Williams and then denied Zvanko Usljebrka a goal with a good close range save.

Shortly after the break, a mistake by the Eagles David Harding allowed Matthew O'Shea through but while Kos was finally beaten, the ball travelled wide of the near post.

Macarthur continued to dictate play but the Eagles defence was solid and desperate resulting in a series of four yellow cards to their players.

But it was to be Bonnyrigg's night as luck was not on the Rams side with Reid denied by the base of the post after flicking a header from a corner and then Kos pulling off his double save.

The win sees them go to joint top of the table along with Canterbury and Leichhardt, while for Macarthur they are just a point further back.

Bonnyrigg: Kos, Watton, Racker, Dragas, Warburton, Richardson, Mancino (Ghisso), Harding (Gajic), Hoenselaars (Neilson), Xuereb, Gomez.

Macarthur: Crawley, Lloyd, Bourke, Valle, Reid, Williams, Whiddett, O'Shea (O'Connell), Lord (Green), Usljebrka, Rayner, Cummins.

There was high drama at Seymour Shaw Park as Sutherland Sharks and Bankstown City Lions battled to a 1-1 draw.

The drama centred on three Bankstown players that were sent from the field and a dramatic Sutherland equaliser by David Blinoff with virtually the last attack of the game.

Bankstown lost Can Celik (47th minute), Tony Velevski (83) and Alen Stajcic (94) to red cards in what was an action packed second half.

Sharks keeper Paul Henderson was again in brilliant form, making a string of great saves throughout the game to keep his side in the game.

Bankstown though hit the lead through Mile Todoroski in the 73rd minute, despite down to ten men. But when Velevski and Stajcic were marched, Sutherland piled on the pressure and getting a late, late equaliser.

Sutherland: Henderson, Saveski, Harrod, Brandtman, Bideau, Walsh (Blinoff), McLeay, Bard, Merralls (Borg), Richardson, Morales.

Bankstown: Aceski, Badrov (Hawrysiuk), T Josevski, Celik, Luksic, Eagleton, Todoroski, Issa, Stajcic, Velevski, Adioski (Bentvelzen).

Canterbury Marrickville kept their unbeaten record in tact after a tough 1-1 draw with Eastern Suburbs at Wentworth Park.

In a game of few good chances, Canterbury will rue two great opportunities to get the whole three points with Jim Nikas the guilty party on both occasions.

The game itself was generally a scrappy affair with neither side able to dominate due to poor ball security.

It wasn't until the 37th minute that the game came to life. Great work by Simon Fedele to persist and finally shrug off the challenge of Mick Daniels, saw him feed Nikas who raced into the box and cooly finish past an exposed Les Bihari.

But while Nikas took his goal well, he will rue a missed opportunity a minute later that would have really taken the sting out of Easts. Faced with acres of room, eight metres out and directly in front, he allowed Bihari to parry away his shot when a low shot was a certainty to score.

Easts, who were finding the tight Berries defence virtually impregnable, made Nikas pay soon after the break with a terrific goal. Bihari's long clearance was nodded down brilliantly by Jim Melissourgos to Scott Mutton. He advanced several metres and crossed to Melissourgos who made a run to the back post and he made no mistake with a header that had Steve Tolios completely wrong-footed.

Not long after, Nikas was guilty of his second bad miss, when Spiro Hantzis floated a free kick to back post which was completely missed by Bihari. With nobody in the goalmouth, Nikas only 3 metres out just needed to head straight but somehow put it wide of the post.

Bihari was called upon to make further saves from Nikas and Con Anagnostopoulos before the game ended on a sour note. Easts defender

Phil Moss unluckily sent off after his harmless challenge on Anagnostopoulos was deemed last line of defence by referee John Cameron, when it appeared the Canterbury attacker had lost control of the ball.

Easts: Bihari, Mikoutski, Hickman, Daniels (Pullicino), Sharpley, Melissourgos, Mutton, Segreto, Moss, Ekinci, Sermanni (McCombe).

Canterbury: Tolios, Raeburn, Tsigolis (Joannou), Shepherd, Mendes, Percy, Hantzis, Jerkovic, Fedele, Nikas, Markopoulos (Anagnostopoulos)

Leichhardt Tigers moved themselves to joint top of the table, with a good 3-1 away win over St. George Saints at St. George Stadium.

A strong second half performance by the Tigers saw them come home to strong for the Saints, who led 1-0 at the break.

St. George had the better of the opening half but only after Saints keeper Andrew Prentice finger-tipped a Pino Miccolis thunderbolt over the bar.

Saints pressed hard and were rewarded when Miccolis put the ball in his own net from a John Pillemer cross.

But it was Leichhardt substitute Rob Pirecca who got Leichhardt back into the game. Seven minutes after coming on he was able to score from close range after a scramble developed in the box.

Four minutes later the Tigers went ahead, John Buonavoglia starting and finishing a move.

Pillemer was denied a goal by a great Jose Bello-Amigo save a minute later and when Pirecca was sent off with ten minutes to go, Saints had a chance to come back.

However playing with less men seems to inspire the Tigers and with just minutes remaining Buonavoglia had his shot parried away only for Miccolis to blast home.

St. George: Prentice, Alidenes, Doyle, Holmes, J Pillemer, Martinez, Araujo, Corbo (Lombardo), Price, Radosavljevic, Macolino.

Leichhardt: Bello-Amigo, Popovich, Milicevic, Pettenon, Ortiz, Savoca, Guzzo, Buonavoglia, Miccolis, Bazdaric (Pirecca - RC), Nikolic (Ilic).

Central Coast picked up their first points of the season with a thoroughly deserved 2-0 win over Ryde City at T.G. Millner Field.

The game also marked the return to semi-professional football of veteran goalkeeper Gary Meier, who turned out for the Coasties after they terminated the contract of Shane Woodhouse.

Meier looked like he never left and was in outstanding form with several telling saves in the second half to deny Ryde.

The killer goal came just moments before half-time when Shane Knight was able to beat Anthony Avellino, breaking the backs of Ryde.

Brent Demery gave the Coasties breathing space with a shot that gave Avellino no chance, ten minutes after the break.

And with Meier now signed for the rest of the season, the Coasties should be a more competitive unit.

Blacktown City came from behind to record a morale boosting 2-1 win over arch rivals Parramatta Eagles at Melita Stadium.

As in Round 1, it was Jon Angelucci and Steve Berry that got the Demons home with second half goals.

After the score was locked at 0-0 at the break, Parramatta's Saso Petrovski brought the game to life soon after the restart tapping in at the far post following Paul Donnelly's low hard cross.

But midway through the half, Sarkis Boudaher turned his marker and cut back to Angelucci who headed home. Three minutes later Berry sealed a good win for the Demons tapping home from close range.

Parramatta: Holmes, Reveley, Jee, Boskovski, Donnelly, Meilak, Petrovski, Thomas, Islas (Kimber), Kinnimont, O'Grady

Blacktown: Greco, Cutler, Foxe, Langan, Angelucci, Berry, Cleary, Bradley (Boudaher), Blake (Faria), Smith, Holst.

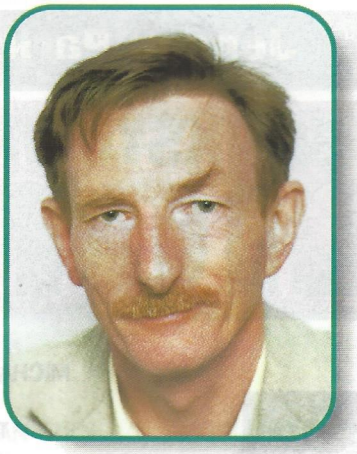
PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS



PENRITH CONFIRM GOOD FORM RATING

The Penrith City Panthers turned in their best performance to date in punishing early pace-setters Rockdale Suns at the Soccer Centre on Sunday.

After losing their opening game the Panthers have grown in confidence and have now knocked over five teams in a row.

Penrith opened the scoring in the 26th minute when Brett Buckpitt latched onto a ball which had been blocked by Rockdale's keeper Sam Butera and fell nicely for him inside the area.

Both sides had chances to score before half time, with Ian Macdonald denied by an alert Mike Gibson in the 32nd minute after an Andrew McHardy header had missed the target narrowly some minutes before.

Macdonald made amends soon after the restart, however, when he shook off a defender on the left hand edge of the area to go on and beat Gibson in the 47th minute at the near post.

Penrith's effervescent striker Danny Hinton cheekily stole possession from Goce Trpcevski inside the Rockdale half and went on to beat the exposed Butera in the 50th to regain the lead for the Panthers .

Danny Blanco set up Macdonald for a great chance to equalise again, on the hour, but the latter's shot went wide of the left hand post.

Three minute later Blanco turned culprit as David Fitzharris gained control and put Penrith 3-1 ahead with a shot which deflected in off the hapless Trpcevski.

Hinton rubbed salt into the wound by dancing past Trpcevski again, seven minutes later, to round off the scoring for the afternoon which undoubtedly belonged, in the final analysis, to Penrith.

Meanwhile the Hurstville City Minotaurs seemed to have little trouble accounting for Hills United 4-0 at Fred Caterson Reserve the same day, despite losing skipper Sam Panagakis to a red card early in the game.

A good team build up led to Socrates Bakafoukas opening the Hurstville City account in the 14th minute.

Fine solo runs by first Tony Mihaljevic in the 65th and then Tom Pontidas four minutes later saw Minotaurs get the upper hand midway through the second half.

When Bakafoukas was brought down by the keeper in the closing stages George Kalogeras converted the penalty.

Minotaurs had John Mylonas back in goal again after an injury to Stacey Allogdelis during training before the Mount Pritchard game and as coach of the keepers it is good that he is around as back up.

Manly-Warringah continue to impress and their 5-1 win at Mount Pritchard was another opportunity for Tony Krslovic to get among the goals.

His two goals in the first half hour were complemented by a third right near the end to earn the player his second hat trick in a fortnight.

Krslovic has certainly brought a new feeling of confidence to the Dolphins who have begun to emerge as a real threat to the more strongly fancied teams after a sluggish start to the campaign.

His 10th and 20th minute strikes laid a solid foundation and a third goal by Greg Walley, following a corner kick meant that Manly was three up at the break and looking relatively safe.

Neil Mineef did break the ice for the Mounties fifteen minutes into the second half after a corner from Greg Baldock.

But goals in the 80th minute by Danny Rosenthal and the inevitable Krslovic, when the shot went in off the far post, epitomised a gloomy day for the home side against a refreshing Dolphins outfit.

Another team to show steady improvement lately is Fairfield who spanked Bathurst 5-0 at the Nineveh Field.

The game was only two minutes old when Rick Giometti got the ball over from the left for Darren Iocca to open the scoring for the Bulls.

Giometti combined well with Saso Talevski eight minutes later, with the latter striking the left hand post.

Scott Gilbert also went close with a 20th minute chip over the keeper which then shaved the left post.

Man of the match Iocca won the ball out wide in the 43rd and laid on the pass for Gilbert to put Fairfield two up at half time.

Penrith Panthers goalkeeper Mike Gib

Bathurst worked hard, but were sunk in the 75th when an acrobatic, overhead shot from David Petrovic found its way into the roof of the net after the defence had failed to clear satisfactorily.

Petrovic then moved well down the left to provide Talevski with the pass to score his first and the Bulls' fourth of the afternoon.

Iocca, this time on the right, crossed smartly for Talevski to head in the fifth goal of a very productive day which yielded the Bulls their fourth win in six matches and their third at headquarters.

Stanmore had to wait until the 89th minute to wrap things up against Belmore at Arlington Oval after holding onto a 5th minute lead given them by Phil Cacciola until the 79th minute when Samer Nicola levelled the scores.

Moorebank, after some solid performances, finally broke through with a gutsy 1-0 win over Auburn at Mona Park.

Haydar Arslan in the Auburn goal proved a great shot-stopper as Moorebank tried everything to create a goal in the first period. Peter Moon and Paul Candelori were both denied by the agile keeper, at close range, but the custodian was helpless to stop the only goal of the game in the 49th minute.

Stuart Key won the ball in his own half and crossed from the left for Martin Driene to lay on a neat, square pass for Richard Munoz to tap home.

Moorebank had Albert Molina sent off soon after scoring and had to work hard to preserve the scoreline.

The win was achieved largely without central striker Antony Versi who had to be replaced after getting injured in a clash of heads early in the game.

Moorebank also have had to defer their game with Hills United until Wednesday 22nd April instead of the previously arranged night game on Wednesday of this week.

Illawarra Lions switched their game with A C United to Sunday evening at Ian McLellan Park and were rewarded with a crowd of 1,200 which got firmly behind the home side from the kick off.

A C United gave plenty and went close with several headers, Bruno Beddoni being the main striker to suffer as brilliant young Lions keeper Robert Raguz made a string of fine

WEEKEND PREVIEW - ROUND SEVEN

There are some interesting tussles coming up this weekend, with Bathurst expected to face a difficult opponent in Illawarra Lions in the west.

The South Coast side is travelling up on the Saturday and their party of thirty have booked into a country homestead to prepare thoroughly for the encounter.

Coach Lube Jancev believes that his young side is now running into top form and is taking no chances against a traditionally strong at home Bathurst.

A C United are sure to provide Stanmore with a tricky task at the Abruzzi Oval in Wetherill Park. A C have not had great results so far, but play nice football if lacking a regular goalscorer. This might be closer than many imagine.

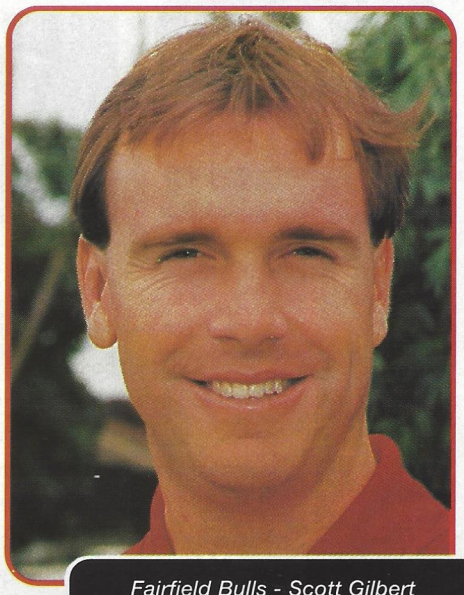
Manly-Warringah will be trying to extend their winning streak when Hills United pays a visit to Cromer Park and it is a game that Hills will be anxious to win to regain some credibility after a few poor results.

Moorebank are back at home to face the mighty Minotaurs who seem to be steamrollering their way to another title, even at this early stage.

The home side is keen to win at home for the first time and while this is a big ask for them, they could prove troublesome for the Hurstville based visitors if they can find some fluency up front.

Auburn always enjoy keen tussles with Fairfield Bulls and the game at Mona Park is likely to be a fiery one with the Bulls perhaps too good on this occasion.

Belmore will be up against a Rockdale side at Arlington which has left the rails a little in recent weeks and it is asking a lot for the Hercules club to beat the Suns in the mood they are likely to be in here.



Fairfield Bulls - Scott Gilbert

Saturday night has Penrith back at Cook Park for the visit of Mount Pritchard who have struggled a little of late.

The Panthers seem to be able to do no wrong just now, but Mounties are fighters and could escape with at least a point with any luck.

Sunday - Hammondville Oval - 3pm

2nd DIVISION

Gladesville stepped out at Christie Park for their first home game of the season and met a Hurstville side searching for some valuable points to assist them in their climb up the ladder.

Rocked by two goals inside seven minutes by Gladesville, the visiting Hurstville found their rhythm quickly enough to draw level ten minutes later.

George Ganiatsas was impeded by Peter Vrlic in the second minute and netted from the spot, for United, then laid on a pass for Con Hrysanthos five minutes later after outpacing a sluggish defence to make it two.

Ante Buntic hit a free kick firmly towards goal in the 14th for Hurstville and when Armen Ramrakha could only push the shot away to his left, Bob Barisic was able to nod the ball back for the other Bob, Simunic, to head home and reduce the deficit.

Simunic, out wide on the left, spotted Denis Lukenic running free through the middle and sent in a clever pass which was picked up nicely and slotted past an advancing keeper for a 17th minute equaliser.

Hurstville gained the lead for the first time with another Lukenic goal, a shot through a sea of legs in the 35th minute after a period of torrid attack.

Steve Milicevic helped his side to a fourth and clinching goal in the 73rd when he rode several tackles and unselfishly squared the ball for Bob Simunic to stroke the ball home.

Once on top Hurstville dictated terms and Gladesville only rarely threatened with some dashes upfield by Ganiatsas whose finishing let him down towards the end.

Uni was up against the ultra-strong Dulwich Hill at David Phillips Field and was sent reeling by another strong performance from the 'Hill men who are on fire right now.

Liverpool and Parramatta met in a game of the battlers at Ernie Smith. Terry Lakos put away a penalty for the Blues in the 6th minute, but Liverpool was able to draw level after a challenge on the keeper.

A good build up by new signing Marcus Pavalakis led to Lakos volleying home his second just before the break to restore Parramatta's lead.

Raffael Scognomiglio, in the Parramatta goal, denied Liverpool a second equaliser and it was their opponents who extended the lead in the 55th with a goal from Angelo Vasilou who capitalised on a long ball from out of defence.

Ray Carney stole in for a second Liverpool goal, but the introduction of 16 year old Tim Coombs and another youngster, Peter Katsoukis, provided the stability Parramatta needed to see it through for their first win.

Arncliffe Scots were on duty again at the often windswept Scots Field to face a keen Mount Druitt side.

The visitors had a great day of results, scoring 12 goals without reply over the three grades, most satisfying being the 4-0 first grade win.

Seventeen year old Leigh Cross netted the first and last of these goals, with a Paul Graham first half penalty and a second half strike from Todd Walker completing the comprehensive win by the rapidly running-into-form Town Rangers side.

Greystanes had a tough one at Bathurst Street Park against Hajduk Wanderers. The visitors were on top in the first half, but could not break through a stubborn 'Stanes defence.

They scored twice in quick succession soon after the restart, with James and Nino Marvello doing the damage. Greystanes fought on well and had shots from Steve Sterrett and a Todd Harper header well saved by Wanderers 'keeper Darren Cross who helped his side maintain the 2-0 lead to the finish.

Sydney Districts met their match in Alexander at Fraser Park in a game switched back late, to the Saturday.

They were a goal down early on to Georgio Manolis and were then two down when Harry Kouklidis converted a penalty, which also brought a send off for the Districts' keeper. Manolis added the third and John Cosentino the fourth, before the break, against a side now reduced to nine men after a second player had been send off.

Districts played some good football for much of the second period, but succumbed to two fine, late goals.

Jim Alipheris hit a superb 30 yarder and Ari Zafiris a fine header to seal the 6-0 win

Olyroos Whitewash Brazilians

If I had said before the just completed series between Australia and Brazil, that the Olyroos would win it 3-0, most would have had me committed to an asylum!

Well that is exactly what happened with Australia wrapping up the series with victories in Adelaide 3-2 and Perth 2-1.

Australia was given little chance of winning any of the matches especially as Brazil were being deemed as one of the early favourites for the Sydney 2000 Olympic Gold Medal.

Even after Australia's great first up victory in Sydney, it was expected that Brazil would be stronger with more days rest as they were obviously suffering from jet-lag. Well the jet-lag must have lasted all week as the Australians looked more like the favourites with Brazil became more interested in the physical stuff than doing what they usually do best - playing beautiful football.

Their cause in Adelaide was made even more difficult when Eriberto was sent off after just five minutes for a careless attack on Clayton Zane as they waited for a corner.

Despite this Brazil taking the lead soon after the send-off, Australia's extra man dominance started to take effect and they equalised just before the break through lanky striker Clayton Zane.

Again Michael Curcija came off the bench to grab a crucial goal giving the Australians the lead and when Nick Rizzo scored from the spot the game was safely in the bag despite a goal by the Brazilians to close the gap.

Brazilian pride was at stake in the third game but the now extremely confident Australians controlled the match from the start and when Zane scored after Brett Emerton has miscued his shot across the face of goal, the game never looked in doubt.

Ten minutes later Zane added a second, pouncing on a mistake by the Brazilian defence to slam his shot past Fabio.

Edu responded with a second half goal but as in all three matches the Australian defence looked composed and desperate not to let Brazil come away with anything from the series.

However it was not just the wins which pleased Australian officials but the way they went about it. Playing with a great deal of maturity and composure, the Olyroos looked more capable of playing the Brazilian game than the Brazilians themselves.

Nick Rizzo will be a name to watch out for in the coming years and if he can get to the same levels as Harry Kewell has achieved, we just might have a side that is capable of great things in Sydney.

Brett Emerton as captain led by example, while Simon Colosimo in his two matches was supreme at the back.

And what was even more pleasing, was the support they received with over 40,000 people watching the three-match series.

Soccer in Australia is not dead and buried as some may think.

SUPRISES IN SUPER SQUAD

NSW Super League Select coach Doug Utjsesnovic (Parramatta Eagles) has included a number of surprises in his squad for the annual Anzac Cup clash against Northern NSW.

The annual clash will take place on Friday April 24 and will be held up in Newcastle.

Of these, young Bonnyrigg defender Borislav Dragas is the biggest surprise since his only started playing first grade during during the pre-season cup. He has impressed his coach John Turner enough to keep him in the top grade and obviously Utjesenovic.

Macarthur Rams - David Reid

The other notable inclusion is Scott Mutton the former Bathurst '75 and now Eastern Suburbs striker.

Mutton since transferring to the Wanderers has enjoyed a great start to the season in which he was at the cornerstone of their Pre-Season Cup truimph and solid start to the season proper.

Utjesenovic has chosen a good blend of players with several getting their first taste of representative football.

Four players each from last years grand finalists, Parramatta Eagles and Bonnyrigg White Eagles, provide the bulk of the 16 player squad. Eight clubs in all are represented.

The Super League teams have won the two previous games and will be strongly favoured to win again this year despite Northern having home ground advantage.

The full squad is:

Steve Eagleton (Bankstown), Damon Langan (Blacktown), Borislav Dragas, Robert Gomez, Johnny Ghisso, Paul Richardson (Bonnyrigg), Paul Roberts (Central Coast), Les Bihari, Scott Mutton (Eastern Suburbs), John Buonavoglia (Leichhardt), David Reid, Matthew O'Shea (Macarthur), Jason Holmes, Stephane Jee, Mark Reveley, Sasha Utjesenovic (Parramatta).

Teenage Revolution

By Barry Davis

Here we are at Round 3 and still there has been only one twelve point day for any of the clubs, thereby proving Teenage Revolution's theory that this will be the tightest Super Youth League for many a year.

Certainly there is some form of early season leadership appearing but there is such a long way to go that it is not possible to predict which club will be at the top of the tree at season's end.

Manly will have learned something from their first away game of the season at the hands of Wollongong City. The home team picked up a very valuable seven points from the encounter, leaving the northern beaches outfit with only four points to show for their efforts.

Only Richard Paddle's 13s gained maximum points for the visitors with a narrow 1-0 win. The Brandon Park based home side then grabbed full revenge with a 4-0 win in the 14s.

The Wolves gained the upper hand when John Griffins 15s posted a 1-0 win but the clubs had to share the spoils in the 16s after fighting out a 0-0 draw.

Leichhardt and Southern Districts had to settle for five points each when the clubs met at Lambert Park.

Districts gained the early points of the day when their 13s won out by the odd goal in five, while the 14s played out an exciting 2-2 draw. We are happy to report that Districts player Ross Turrisi, who was rushed to hospital with a suspected spinal injury, is apparently OK and he will be rejoining his team shortly.

The Tigers clearly dominated the 15s with a 7-0 whitewash but had to settle for a share of the spoils in the 16s, deadlocked 1-1 at full-time.

Eastern Suburbs found the going a bit tough when they met Blacktown City at Francis Park. They must have been happy when Allan Jones' 13s picked up the points in the 13s with a 3-0 win but they were brought back to earth when George Fallah's 14s scored four unanswered goals to even things up for the Demons.

The Demons went on to win the 15s in a close game 2-1 and then recorded the same score in the 16s to give them nine points for the day.

Marconi and Sutherland split the points evenly at Marconi Park.

The Shire began very well indeed with a terrific 4-1 win in the 13s followed by an equally impressive 4-0 win in the 14s.

However things turned Marconi's way as Ron Pratt's 15s scraped home 2-1 and this was followed by Eddie McPherson's 16s squaring accounts for the day with a healthy 4-1 win.

National League clubs Sydney United and Sydney Olympic clashed at the Croatian Sports Centre and this time around Olympic gained the majority of the points.

A 5-0 win in the 13s started things well for Olympic and their expectations must have been high when their 14s won by exactly the same margin.

However the bubble burst when United grabbed the three points in the 15s with a 2-0 win in a closely contested game. However Olympic regained the advantage with another close win - 2-1 in the 16s.

Macarthur Rams hosted Parramatta Eagles at Lynwood Park and on this occasion the Eagles picked up the majority of the points on offer.

The 13s played out an exciting 2-2 draw, which could have been won by either side. The Rams were superior in the first half with Aiden Matthews and Peter Walker but it was a different story in the second half as Daki Falcon and Daniel Joseph earned Parramatta a point.

A dramatic start in the 14s with Rams Daniel Milne scoring after just 15 seconds, the first for the Eagles being the goalkeeper who picked the ball out of the net. Further goals from Nathan Miranda and Blake Oliver were to give the home side a three goal advantage at the break and that is where the scoring finished.

However that is where it ended for Rams with Parramatta winning the 15s 4-2, while in the 16s it was close all day as the Eagles won 1-0 and once again prove themselves to be a very good team.

Newcastle Breakers came back to earth after last weeks outstanding success when they could only secure four points from Gladesville-Hornsby.

Claiming three points in the 13s with a 1-0 win was the best the Novocastrians could do all day, but the 1-1 draw in the 14s must have been a reasonable result for them.

Gladesville took charge in the 15s with a healthy 3-0 win and they followed this up with a 2-0 victory in the 16s for seven points on the day.

DIVISION ONE

Wow! Five twelve point hauls in one weekend. Could it be that division is sorting itself out very early? Teenage Revolution doubts that this will be the case but you never know.

The day proved a bonanza for Bankstown winning every grade. In the 13s they received a forfeit from Rockdale, while the 14s were good 2-0 winners. Allan Shedrick's 15s continued the success for Bankstown with a 4-2 victory and Garry Dunlop's 16s gave the visitors the full ration of points with a 3-1 win.

Illawarra Lions hosted St. George at the BHP Sportsground and earned seven points from the day.

Honours were shared in the 13s when the score was locked at 2-2 at the final whistle but then the Lions came good with a 1-0 win in the 14s.

They continued the trend with another narrow victory, this time 3-2 in the 15s but they lost the 16s 3-0 to a well tuned Rade Kraojevic coached St. George side.

Southern Branch produced the 'shock' of the early season when they humbled the previously unbeaten Bonnyrigg at South Nowra, collecting all 12 point.

Steve Davison's 13s started the ball rolling with a narrow 1-0 win and then Peter Ross' 14s helped themselves to their first win, with a 2-0 win.

Ray Tweedie's boys went a goal better with a 3-0 win and Norm Boardman's 16s made it a clean sweep with a 1-0 win.

CSI bounced back from their disaster last week to gather in six points from their matches against Penrith.

Paul Constantini's 13s started CSI off on the right path with a comfortable 4-0 win but they were out-thought by the Panthers in the 14s, who posted a 1-0 win.

Alen Michelmore's 15s out CSI's nose in front again with a 2-0 win but Penrith were far from finished and squared things up with a nice 4-0 win in the 16s.

Once again Central showed that they are not to be trifled with at their beloved Pluim Park as they knocked off Canterbury Association for the full 12 points.

Graeme Hutch's 13s gave an early indication of what was to come with a 2-0 win and then Steve Mackie's 14s scraped home by the odd goal in five.

The Coasties went on with the job in the 15s, winning 3-0 and the Richard Kocass coached 16s put the icing on the cake with a 3-1 win to round off a perfect day.

Nepean Association had 'one of those days' at Cook Park when they hosted neighbours Blacktown Association, losing all 12 points.

The Blacktown 13s started with a narrow 1-0 win and then the Jeff Suzor coached 14s 2-0 win.

However things got progressively worse for Nepean as Blacktown won the 15s 6-0 and then won 7-2 in the 16s to end a miserable day for Nepean.

AC United climbed back into early contention when they recorded yet another 12 pointer in their matches against Ryde

City at Abruzzi Oval.

The 13s were victors by just the one goal while the 14s were 2-0 winners. Luigi Bucciarelli's 15s resumed the competition lead with a 3-1 win and the 16s showed what they are made of with a hard fought 2-1 win.

DIVISION TWO

Finally a start in Division Two and like the other divisions picking teams for promotion is too difficult just now.

Stanmore Hawks had a reasonably good day when they visited Mt. Pritchard at Cook Park, taking seven points to the home sides four.

Their 13s started the competitive season with a 3-1 win but the 14s had to be content to share the points with the Mounties following their 2-2 draw.

The Hawks bounced back to their winning ways with a narrow 1-0 win in the 15s but the Mounties managed to grab one win with a 2-0 result in the 16s.

Mt. Druitt Town also got off to a comfortable start at Hajduk Stadium, where they played St. Johns Park.

Town scored a narrow 3-2 win in the 13s and was followed by a much more respectable 3-1 win in the 14s. The same margin occurred in the 15s with a 2-0 win but St Johns Park rallied in the 16s to win 4-1.

The bad run for home teams continued when Parramatta City met Macquarie Sports at Eric Primrose Park, the visitors getting eight for the day and Parramatta just two.

Macquarie easily won the 13s with a 6-2 and while the 14s was much closer, the visitors still managed to get the points with a 1-0 win.

The clubs shared the points in the 15s which finished 2-2 and they repeated that effort in the 16s when the match ended 1-1.

Hawkesbury was another to be 'rolled' at home when they could only gain two points to Ku-Ring-Gai Associations eight at Bensons Lane.

Ku-Ring-Gai were the better team in the 13s and won their game 2-0. They also dominated in the 14s finishing with a comfortable 3-1 victory.

Hawkesbury gained their first point for the day, holding Ku-Ring-Gai to a 1-1 draw and they doubled their tally in the 16s with a very exciting 3-3 draw.

Granville Association started well enough but they could not go on with the job when they played hosts to nearby Hills United at Rydalmere Park.

In the 13s Granville proved themselves slightly better than the visitors with a closely contested 3-2 victory but that is where their good news ended.

Hills bounced back to win the 14s 4-0, improved on that with a 5-0 win in the 15s, while the 16s was much closer but Hills still claimed the points with a 1-0 win.

MATCHES OF THE ROUND

Super Youth

In the 13s the clash between Sutherland and Newcastle looks very interesting. Neither side has been beaten and they have very similar attacking and defensive records. Playing at Bates Drive may give Sutherland a slight advantage.

The clash between Wollongong and Sydney Olympic at Brandon Park looks very attractive. Both have been travelling well and anything could happen. Good prospect of a few goals in this one.

Parramatta are at home to Sydney United in the 15s and that may give them the edge they need. United are sure to be giving their all to maintain their second place on the table.

The 16s match between Gladesville and Leichhardt is bound to produce action aplenty. Gladesville will be keen to maintain their top four position, while the Tigers will looking to steal that place from them. Playing at Christie Park will give Gladesville the advantage.

Division One

CSI travel to Pluim Park to take on the high flying Central Coast in what looks to be the Match of the Round in the 13s. The Coasties have been doing very well and CSI are on the improve and they are keen to do well. A high scoring game could well result.

St. George will host Ryde City in the 14s in a game which could go either way. If Ryde win they could earn a place in the top four, while if St. George win they will overtake Ryde on the table.

The clash of the St. George and Ryde 15s also appears to hold some appeal in the 15s. There isn't much between them on the table and they will both be eager to improve their respective positions.

Southern Branch are at home to Penrith and the 16s match has much going for it. Although Southern are 7th and the Panthers 2nd, there is just a single point separating them. Home ground advantage may be the deciding factor.

Division Two

In the 13s Stanmore Hawks play Granville at Pratten Park and this looks the pick of the crop. Both teams scored three goals in winning their respective matches last week and we can only hope to see more of the same this time around.

Ku-Ring-Gai will host Macquarie Sports at Parklands Oval in the 14s in a match which could go either way. Both had wins last week and they will want to continue the trend.

The 15s clash of Mt. Druitt and Mt. Pritchard at Popondetta Park is sure to be interesting. These two old rivals are sure to want to gain the upper hand and so there should be plenty of goal mouth action.

For the 16s, the selection is the match between Parramatta and St Johns Park at Eric Primrose. Although St Johns were big winners last week, Parramatta should be able to use their home ground knowledge to full advantage and provide a very interesting contest.
